

CANASA CONFERENCE DAY

Tuesday April 21, 2009

» Conferences in French only. Please pre-register on-line.

8:00 am – 8:30 am	Registration and breakfast
8:30 am – 9:30 am	The New Regulations Concerning False Fire Alarms in the City of Montreal In September 2008, the City of Montreal adopted municipal regulations aimed at reducing the number of false fire alarms in their territory. Will these regulations that became effective in February 2009 reach their goals? Speaker: Sylvain Carrière - Chef aux opérations - Service incendie de Montréal Planification stratégique et technologies - Division de la planification stratégique
9:40 am – 10:40 am	Le Bureau de la sécurité privée : Where are we with it. Me Serge Roberge, Executive director of the Bureau will be there to inform us on the latest developments and on the pre-requisit who will be request to obtain enterprise and agent permits. Conférencier : Me Serge Roberge - Directeur général, Bureau de la sécurité privée Speaker: Me Serge Roberge - Executive director, Bureau de la sécurité privée
10:40 am – 10:55 am	Coffee break
10:55 am – 12:00 pm	Video Surveillance and Integrated Security; the Challenge of the Future A multitude of private and public companies own a video surveillance system. How to consider the interoperability with the SPVM? Sharing challenges of tomorrow's security. Speaker: Dominic Wérotte - Commandant Service Police de la Ville de Montréal Planification opérationnelle - Module des unités du support opérationnel
12:00 pm – 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 pm – 2:00 pm	The New Generation of Labor Relations and the Enormous Challenge for Company Managers 2011 and 2012 will be considered as a critical point in the labour shortage. Do you understand the new generation of people who will enter the labour market? Will it be the responsibility of the employees to adapt themselves to the company or the company adapting to the employees? Marc-Etienne Julien from Randstad will answer all of your questions. Speaker: Marc Etienne Julien - Vice-President Ranstad Quebec Randstad Recruitment Agency
2:10 pm – 3:10 pm	Is Electronic Security a Threat for Network Security? The session will give an opportunity to focus on security goals in a global point of view and the build the bridge between them and the enterprise risk managers. What are the real challenges to computer security? What is their relative relevance? This presentation will provide themes on good security governances under the international name ISO27002 published in 2005. Previously know under the name of ISO17799. Speaker: Patrick Boucher, CISSP, CISA, CGEIT, ITIL - Gardien Virtuel Inc.
3:10 pm – 3:25 pm	Coffee break
3:25 pm – 4:30 pm	Discover New Technologies that will Influence the Security Market The web, global economy and technological innovations can become new business opportunities. Discover what the future has in store for us and what it can represent for your company. Speakers: Jean-François Champage - Brivo Systems, LLC Daniel Couillard - Axis Communications Régis Glorieux - GP Marketing Inc

MANUFACTURERS'S TRAINING SESSIONS (MTS)

Wednesday April 22, 2009

» Available in French only and free to attend. Must pre-register online.

9:00 am

Registration and coffee

10:00 am

Presentation in English

The launch of the newest DSC product

Be one of the first to witness the unveiling of DSC's new product X. This 50 minute session will introduce you to the newest member of the DSC product offering.

Presented by: Frank J. Pietrobono C.E.T, CSP Director of Sales, Corporate Accounts
North America, DSC

11:00 am

Discover the newest features and advantages of CENTAUR 5.0

- * DVR integration
- * Visitor Management (sign visitors in and out using a signature pad)
- * Parking Management

Also find out about the new simplified user management that allow you greater flexibility like; assigning multiple cards per user, create user groups and apply changes to all members of a group in one click.

With over 10 years in the market, CENTAUR has established itself as the unchallenged industry leader for easy to use access control systems.

Presented by: Francis Dugré of CDVI

1:00 pm

Learn about the latest solutions from Honeywell

If you are looking to sell more systems, take a look at the advantages of partnering with Honeywell. In addition to delivering the newest innovations, products and technologies we'll provide you with the latest residential and commercial security solutions—creating more opportunities for you and your business.

Presenter: Daniel Renaud - District Manager, Honeywell Security & Communications

MANUFACTURERS'S TRAINING SESSIONS (MTS)

Wednesday April 22, 2009

» Available in French only and free to attend. Must pre-register online.

2:00 pm

APA / Paradox presents the future! THE IMPÉRIAL

Presenter: Pierre Fleury from Paradox

3:00 pm

Tri-Ed CCTV Clinton, Digital Watchdog, Open Eye

Presenter: Michel Labelle from Tri-Ed

4:00 pm

ADI and Speco Technologies

ADI, Speco and PLG Security are combining forces to introduce you to the new TH Series of digital video recorders from Speco Technologies.

Please join Michel Blondin from PLG Security to discuss the following:

- Why using a hybrid technology?
- What is H.264 compression?
- Advantages and disadvantages of IP cameras
- New features and different configurations of the TH series
- Compatible IP Cameras

Speaker : Michel Blondin from PLG Security

7 pm - midnight

Evening Event - Nos Supers Héros de la sécurité

PLEASE NOTE :

Trade show includes buffet lunch on show floor.
Closing cocktail reception on show floor.

Security Canada
INTERNATIONAL SECURITY
CONFERENCE & EXPOSITION

Security Canada trade shows and conferences are produced and managed by:

Canadian Security Association

610 Alden Road, Suite 100, Markham, ON L3R 9Z1 | www.canasa.org | www.securitycanadaexpo.com